Sir N. A. Dyngar is in charge of the same duties that were entrusted to Sir Jayaram Naidu. He has been granted two extensions of service of one year each from 31-3-49. When he was drawing a pay of Rs 800/- p.m. as to be no case for the grant of an extra

A Committee has since been constituted to MEMO.

To

The Legal Remembrancer and Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Law Department,
Bangalore.

Sir,

Sub:- Grant of an allowance to the Senior Surgeon in virtue of his appointment as ex-officio Inspector General of Prisons.

With reference to Government Order No. 6962/C.B. 18-48-30 dated 23rd February 1949 permitting Dr. V.V. Monteiro, Senior Surgeon to draw a charge allowance of Rs. 100/- per mensem from 10th July 1948 for the period he holds additional charge of the duties of the Inspector General of Prisons, I have the honour to state that this charge allowance was denied to my predecessor in Office (Dr. B. Jayaram) on the ground that the post of the Inspector-General of Prisons was abolished from 1st March 1949. A detailed report explaining the necessity for the continuance of this allowance to the Senior Surgeon in view of the additional work and responsibility devolved on him in remaining in charge of the duties of the Inspector-General of Prisons was submitted to Government with this Office letter No. 100-8B. dated 23-5-1949. A further communication was also made to Government with this Office G.O. letter No. 100 B dated 16th August 1949 stating that the work relating to the Prisons department takes away 3 to 4 hours every day causing great strain.

From the connected records, I find that the allowance paid to the Senior Surgeon was disallowed in audit on the ground that the post of the Inspector-General of Prisons as a separate Officer has been abolished. But Government in their Order No. P. 15571-573/Pris. 1-48-2 dated 4th April 1949 directed that the Senior Surgeon be in additional charge of the Prisons Department as Inspector-General of Prisons, it will thus be seen that though the post of Inspector-General of Prisons was abolished, additional duties were entrusted to the Senior Surgeon in respect of Prisons Department. I need hardly say that the work connected with the Prisons Department which is on the increase is of such a nature as would require the services of a whole-time Officer and when such responsible and taxing duties are devolved on another Officer, he should be compensated by way of a suitable allowance. The fact that the duties of the Inspector-General of Prisons had grown enormously has been appreciated by Government and they recognised the need to appoint a full-time Officer for this purpose in 1947 (Vide G.O. 913-15/C.B. 61-47-1 dated 20th August 1947. Now this additional appointment has been abolished there has been considerable savings to Government and the grant of a small allowance of Rs. 100/- to the Senior Surgeon will not entail any heavy expenditure. In these circumstances, I request that Government may be pleased to reconsider this question and accord sanction for the grant of an allowance (Charge allowance or duty allowance) of Rs. 100/- per mensem to the Senior Surgeon.

Yours faithfully,

K. A. Aiyaz

Inspector-General of Prisons.
